One day there was a lady bird. The lady bird flew over the river bank. His wings went big and he fell down. He found a very big flower. The lady bird saw his wings went even bigger and spotty. He found a very deep cold river. He flew too fast. He splashed into the cold river. He was very cold. So he tried to fly away. Oh no! I am stuck on this cold river forever.